

JORDAN'S PRINCIPLE

A Child's First Principle

Jordan's Principle was named after Jordan Anderson from Norway House, Manitoba. It ensures that all First Nations children have access to services, supports, and products when they need it without delays. Some of the services and supports include:

- Mental health services
- Medical supplies and equipment
- Respite
- Tutoring
- Speech therapy
- and more...

MONTREAL LAKE MEMBERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CONTACT THE JORDAN'S PRINCIPLE SERVICE COORDINATOR IF YOU KNOW A FIRST NATIONS CHILD WITH ANY UNMET NEEDS (HEALTH, SOCIAL, EDUCATION) OR IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS.
